

Welcome to High Ideals News.

letter from the editor

Hello and welcome to all the new people who've joined us.

Do you know about The Purpose Prize?

It's an initiative of <http://www.encore.org/> which is a non-profit think tank that is leading the call to engage millions of experienced individuals in becoming a force for social change. It's called an Encore Career when after your retirement, or similar life cycle moment, you take up a new direction, a new purpose in your own life and for the betterment of others.

The Purpose Prize launched in 2006 as the first Baby Boomers turned 60, and is a major initiative investing in a new generation of social innovators - individuals in the second half of life who are marshalling their accumulated experience to tackle some of societies most pressing problems.

This is such a beautiful idea that resonates with what we stand for at High ideals.

Why?

My experience as a professional coach and educator has proven time and time again how few people really take advantage of the internet, and in particular search engine tools, to simply find answers to anything they want.

I have to encourage a lot of the clients I work with to simply give it a try, do their own research, have a play and discover new information.

Yes, sometimes it can seem overwhelming with all the information that is instantly available, and occasionally quite easy to get lost in. Other times it's frustrating when you don't instantly find what you're looking for, and so it also requires patience.

However, it's wonderful that you can simply type in any question or keyword(s) and explore if you're willing to go on the adventure in the first place to benefit yourself and/or others.

Enjoy the journey!

Cheers,
